

BUSINESS HOUSES THROUGHOUT CITY HEARTILY IN FAVOR OF AD CLUB STOCK-SELLING PLAN

"We are heartily in accord with your plan and want our employees to become stockholders even if we have to supply them with the 'dollar,'" is what one local firm has written to the Ad Club's carnival finance committee in reply to the letter sent out last week asking for lists of employees. Many others in answering express their approval of the plan.

"We trust you will have no difficulty in accomplishing the work you have set out to do," writes another large firm, sending in its long list of employees. "Rest assured we would be pleased to have you command us if we can be of service to you."

A common expression is, "We have pleasure in sending you our list and trust it will be of much practical value to you."

The lists are wanted by the committee for the purpose of seeing that all who might want to buy stock in the carnival corporation get full information and have an opportunity to subscribe.

It is not merely the duty of this committee to see that the necessary amount of stock is subscribed for, Chairman A. L. C. Atkinson, says. He also wants to see that everyone has a chance to subscribe. We do not want to have people saying when it is all over that they were 'left out' and didn't have a chance to get in the corporation.

"The corporation is a sort of public concern. As Carter put it, not only every citizen, but every resident of Honolulu is interested, and as Carter also said, 'Give everybody a chance to come in.' In doing this we need the employees' lists. We may not see everyone personally, but we can make it as certain as possible that everyone has a chance."

"When this carnival is over, and has made the success it is going to make, putting a carnival on its feet and laying the basis for holding the next carnival without anybody putting up a cent, those stock certificates are going to be prized by those who hold them. People will be proud to say that they have at least some shares of stock in Hawaii's biggest boost scheme."

"We are not ready to receive subscriptions yet, but some have been proffered. And we find in talking to people about the plan that they are very apt to say 'Don't leave me off the list when you get ready.'"

TO PROVE CONTROL OF DIABETES

On Monday, May 6th, 1912, San Francisco dailies published this offer:

"To show that Codelin containing opium which locks up secretions, mostly used in Diabetes is wrong and that Fulton's Diabetic Compound, which contains no opium or sedatives, is right, we will say that if four physicians of good standing in this city will send us a Diabetic between fifty and seventy years of age, strong enough to call at our office, showing high specific gravity, thirst and a large quantity of sugar, we will with this mild infusion to help the liver oxidize the sugars and starches, attempt to return him in sixty days with half of the sugar eliminated, with thirst and symptoms largely reduced and on the road to recovery. If we fail we will publish the fact. This offer is not in the nature of a contest, but to demonstrate that life can be prolonged or recovered had in many cases of Diabetes now dying under codein."

If you have Diabetes and are of middle age or over do you not owe it to yourself and family to try Fulton's Diabetic Compound before giving up? Ask for pamphlet or write John J. Fulton Co., San Francisco—advertisement.

Union Sunday school for the past few Sundays, will tell a Christmas story illustrating it on the blackboard. George Swift of the Leas, will play on his violin and the Washingtons will sing their club song. The Lincoln orchestra will play and sing some Hawaiian melodies which never fail to please the boys. From Cooke hall the clubs will adjourn to the Games hall for practice in basketball and running. The cross-country comes on January 5 and the basketball series starts on the 12th, so the 10 clubs are using every opportunity to get into shape.

NON-SUIT ENTERED IN SUIT AGAINST INTER-ISLAND CO.

Circuit Judge Whitney today granted the motion for non-suit in the $10,000 damage suit of John Stockwell against the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. The plaintiff alleged he had lost an eye through the negligence of a fellow employee, and that the company was responsible for employing the other workman, a youth of 17 years who, Stockwell asserted, was not sufficiently skilled at the trade. The court upheld the contention of Attorney J. W. Cathcart and E. W. Sutton, for the defendant, that negligence on the company's part was not shown. Andrews and Quarles, counsel for Stockwell, gave notice of appeal to the supreme court.

A motion by Stockwell's counsel to re-open the plaintiff's case for the admission of additional evidence was denied. They asserted they had found another witness to the accident, when the Hawaiian youth's hammer accidentally struck Stockwell in the eye. Judge Whitney excused the jury, which had been sitting in the case, announcing that this probably was the present jury's final appearance before him. After the first of the year the new jury list, drawn early this month, will be used.

Dredger Had Close Call.

On Sunday last the big dredger that has been working at Kahului, started off for Hilo in tow of the steamer Hiloian. The start was successful but, before the steamer was half a mile off shore, the cable parted and the dredger began to drift ashore, says the Maui News. The tug Leslie Baldwin was whistled for and she saved the dredger from being piled up on the reef.

To the Scoutmasters of Honolulu Area, B. S. O. A.:

I am in receipt of a letter from Honorable Sanford B. Dole, December 20, 1913, urgently requesting that the Boy Scouts of this area turn out in full force to assist, as hitherto, in the keeping of orderly lines of children at the Malihini Christmas tree.

This is an arduous and difficult feat and was performed last year in a credible manner; the handling of 2500 children in three hours.

As this is very short notice, please urge your boys in the name of the good turn to sacrifice their Christmas morning to the end that we may cut down the three hours of last year to two hours this year, thus saving hundreds of pairs of little feet from needless weariness.

The public will understand that our new troops have not as yet earned the money for their uniforms, but that nevertheless they are scouts in good standing. I would request that you have your troop report to the commission at the time and place to be announced later through the press.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES A. WILDER,
Commissioner.
